25th ANNIVERSARY

Martha,
I've sent you
some pictures of around old J.H. This year and I hope you'll find it interesting. I'll send the next year. Be you Shirley.

Martha,
It has been nice knowing
you all these years.
I hope to see you
next year.

Lots of luck,
always
Rose C.

Martha,
I think you are a very nice girl. I hope to see you next year.
Love,

SUFFOLK HIGH SCHOOL

Theme Presentation

For the past twenty-four years, I, THE PEANUT, has been the connecting link between you and your high school career. Great changes have taken place, and even so, each year's happenings have been faithfully recorded between my covers. This year, I am twenty-five years old, and I'm mighty proud that I can help you relive your past year in Suffolk High School. That's really what I'm here for.

I am divided into five parts. At the beginning you will find the faculty of the school I represent presented with some glimpses into their classroom activities. In the second part the students themselves are pictured. These begin with the Junior High and go through all the grades until, as a climax, the Seniors are portrayed.

In my third section you will see pictures of all the clubs and organizations in Suffolk High School. The students take pride in participating in these many and varied activities, and well they might. In this section also you might see those people who have made my being possible.

Immediately following this section is the one which tells "who's who" among the Seniors, and gives some interesting and amusing glimpses into the life of the school.

First in our thoughts during the school year is the field of Sports, and this comprises my fifth section. Here you will see our championship football team and our high scoring basketball teams, both in formal attire and in action. We're mighty proud of the boys and girls who, by their good sportsmanship and excellent playing, have given our school such prestige and honor. I'm glad that I have the chance to help you remember them.

Without my last section, I would not be complete, for here are represented all those business firms and establishments which have contributed to the expenses of my publication.

I hope you'll look through all my pages and read every word, for I have tried to convey the spirit of Suffolk High School in my twenty-fifth year as well as I have in the past twenty-four.

VIEWS OF THE SCHOOL

It looks good to us, even from a distance.

Things are looking up!

The center of our activities.

Only eighth graders allowed!

DEDICATION

MR. W. R. SAVAGE, JR.

We can't imagine our school life without Mr. Savage. For the past few years, his office has been the generating force for all school activities. Most of the time we go there willingly for advice. Too often we wish we didn't have to go there. But, no matter what the situation, the fairest judgment is always administered, and it's always in the best interests of the pupils.

Mr. Savage represents for us the embodiment of all the ideals, principles, and aims of Suffolk High School. He constantly is looking for ways to make our school "bigger and better." His guidance in the Senate and Ways and Means Committee has been the starting point for many school activities. His interest in young people is one of the characteristics which endears him to all the students.

We can think of no one who is more deserving of the great honor of receiving the dedication of the 25th Anniversary Edition of THE PEANUT than Mr. W. R. Savage, Jr., Principal of Suffolk High School.

Science

One of the requirements for graduation from Suffolk High School is that the student have at least one year of any science. Offered in our school are general science, biology, chemistry, and physics.

General science, which is offered to any high school student, is the study of everyday science dealing with a little chemistry and a little physics. It can be considered as a foundation of science.

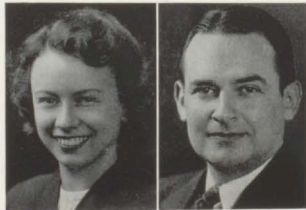

Biology is available to students in their sophomore, junior, or senior years. It is the study of all types of plant and animal life and is a very helpful course for those who are not especially interested in the scientific course.

Physics is offered to Seniors and is the study of the many physical laws of nature. It also is closely associated with a lab performed by the student in which he demonstrates and experiments with these many natural laws.

Any one of these courses gives the student one high school credit. It is possible to obtain four credits in science by taking all of these courses.

Language Arts

Although, at the time, it may seem dull and unimportant to some, later in life we realize the value of English courses in high school and appreciate the benefits derived from the study of grammar and literature.

In Junior High School we are faced with the task of struggling through two periods of English a day. Yes, we study "Evangeline" and think we know quite a bit about grammar, but four more years face us.

As freshmen we are exposed to more difficult types of grammar, and we read "The Rhyme of the Ancient Mariner." Composition is introduced into our English course, and we have written quite a few "works of art" when our sophomore year comes around. In this class we read "Silas Marner," and Shakespeare's "Julius Caesar" has to be endured.

When juniors, we learn all about American authors and poets and read some of their works. We even find ourselves making booklets, posters, and projects in connection with our parallel reading.

Here we are seniors, and find ourselves enthralled by the records of "Macbeth." We do a great deal of creative writing and read very much about English literature. But, perhaps, we like to sit and listen best of all!

Mathematics

MISS MARY ST. CLAIR BUGG

MISS LUCY BRITT

MISS LOUISE LILLY

Of the sixteen credits required for a student to graduate two must be in the field of mathematics. There is a wide selection in this field for it includes algebra, business arithmetic, general mathematics, plane and solid geometry, and trigonometry.

Freshmen, the budding young mathematicians of tomorrow, take their futures into their hands when they enter algebra class. Yes, the majority of students do take algebra on which to build their foundations in mathematics.

Geometry is a favorite of math students in Suffolk High School. These students are the "eager beavers" who attempt to prove the Pythagorean theory.

For students who intend to take a commercial course, general mathematics and business arithmetic are very useful.

Here we have pictured what is known as the "brave eight," for they have dared to take that awe-inspiring subject known as trigonometry. If they wade through this, there is a good chance that they may attempt to take solid geometry the next term.

Foreign Languages

In Suffolk High School two foreign languages are offered to the students. They are French and Latin taught by Mrs. Taylor and Miss Brinkley, respectively. Pictured above is the French I class. In order for a student to get any credit for French, he has to take at least two years of it. The class consists of learning the French language as well as many customs of the French people. Also the geography of France is taught to some degree, with emphasis on the more important cities such as Paris. As you know, there are many French dialects spoken, as is true of any European nation, but the French taught in our school is the dialect spoken around Paris, known as Parisian French.

In order for a student to get credit for Latin, he must take at least two years of it, even though four years of Latin are offered in Suffolk High. The student is taught a reading knowledge of Latin as well as the customs of the early Romans and the geography of Italy. The first two years of Latin are devoted almost entirely to grammar, while the last two consist of reading Cicero and Virgil.

Industrial Arts

General Shop, mechanical drawing, and basic electricity are offered in Suffolk High School's program of Industrial Arts. Much practical work is done in our well equipped shop in connection with these courses. The Industrial Arts courses are extremely interesting and popular, especially with those students who are planning to enter fields involving engineering, draftsmanship, or any other occupation which necessitates manual training. Under Mr. Applegate's able direction pupils are instructed in the fundamental mechanics, theories, and applications of electricity, mechanical drawing, wood working, metal working, simple mechanics, and general repair work.

These classes truly do their part to give Suffolk High School a varied program of curriculum activities. The boys who choose these courses are not only making worth while projects, but also building for the future.

Mr. E. L. APPLEGATE

Social Studies

MISS TAPELLE PRUDEN

MISS MARILYN BELL

MISS MARTHA MACKLIN

The courses in Social Sciences offered in Suffolk High School are American history, world history, government, economic geography, business training and sociology. These studies provide a varied curriculum from which the students may choose. Such courses always appeal to us, not only because of the fine teachers we have, but also because of the variety of interesting places and subjects that are discussed. Not infrequently one of these classes makes a trip to a court, the state capitol, Washington D. C., and other places of importance. These trips serve to make the courses still more enjoyable as well as to bring the subjects studied even closer to our everyday applications.

Our excellent teachers, Miss Bell, Miss Pruden, Miss Macklin and Miss Yates, do a tremendous amount of admirable work in order to enable Suffolk High School to have one of the best possible programs in the social sciences. One unit and a half in American history and government are required for graduation, but the elective courses in social studies are very popular among the students. The students pictured below watching a moving picture really seem to enjoy their classroom periods while getting a great deal of information from the films.

Commercial Studies

One glance into the typing room is all you need to see a wonderful display of speed and coordination. Here, fast thinking minds and accurate fingers point the way to careers as stenographers and typists; or, for those who do not plan a commercial career, this class teaches typing for personal use and as a means for securing neatness in college papers and in personal correspondence.

Miss Moore and Miss Basler further the commercial field in high school by teaching classes in bookkeeping and shorthand. For the very business-minded students, they offer courses in office practice, filing, and business English. In taking these courses, the students are given an insight into the different ways businesses are managed and are often recommended for after-school jobs as a means of putting into practice what they have learned.

Many girls have secured jobs upon completion of high school, and in this way they have helped business organizations in the town.

The class pictured above is second year typing. These advanced students keep charts to show their improvement and advancement in speed. By conscientious work and practice they are equipping themselves to take their place in the business world.

MISS MAMIE BASLER

MISS HARRIETTE MOORE

MISS GLADYS YATES

Fine Arts

It's fun. That's the only way to describe Miss Yates's class in Fine Arts. It's actually more like play than work. Individual instruction is provided, guiding the pupils' work. Along with the actual painting there is a study in art appreciation. Pupils are guided in appreciating the best masterpieces, and there is instruction in the art of different nations and periods which changes from year to year.

This class is certainly never dull or monotonous. There is a great variety of projects. Besides the painting of pictures in oils, pastels, crayons, pencils, water colors, and pen and ink, there are wood carving and burning, clay modeling, glass etching, and soap carving, as well as the many school projects such as decorating trays, book ends, candlestick holders, and plates and textile painting. Yes, in the three years that Suffolk High School has had an art class, Miss Yates has developed an interesting and enjoyable program.

MRS. ELISE LEWIS

Library

Perhaps we ought to say that our library is the most educational room in the whole school. Here one may find information about any subject he could think of, and the wealth of material is being continuously augmented to keep in step with changing conditions.

Our library contains approximately 9,500 volumes besides the numerous monthly magazines and daily newspapers. All books indexed in the Readers' Guide are kept here for a period of five years. In addition to this, there are two vertical files in which important articles, pamphlets and pictures are kept for their use in research work. All of the trophies, plaques and books awarded to the school, and copies of high school publications are kept here.

Recently, the equipment used for sound pictures and projectors have been stored in the library.

Throughout the day, from 8:30 a.m. to 3:45 p.m., the library is frequented by approximately 140 pupils. Various clubs and committees often meet here, and its quiet atmosphere makes it a favorite study hall.

Miss Scarborough and Mrs. Lewis have aided the students of Suffolk High School in increasing their knowledge by making the library the inviting and pleasant place it is.

Home Economics

Among the girls of Suffolk High School Home Economics is a popular course. The two year course offered in this subject entitles the students to three credits toward graduation, and they really enjoy the work! During class time they learn to cook and sew and to master the art of house cleaning. Often, oh, so very often, the savory aroma of some delicacy has wafted up to the second and third floors to tantalize the hungry students into forgetting about schoolwork and thinking only of their appetites.

Interior decorating is also included in this course to teach students how to select colors which blend well and to use these to their best advantages in decorating a room.

The students pictured above are practicing some of the useful tasks which they have learned in Home Economics. This course has truly done its part to help the girls of Suffolk High School build their lives in view of the future.

MISS ELIZABETH MARABLE

Retail Selling

This year two new classes have been offered to the students of Suffolk High School. They are Retail Selling and Consumer Buying which are taught by Mr. Preddy.

Pictured above is the Retail Selling class. Each member of the class is required to work fifteen hours in a local store while earning the same pay as a regular employee. In the classroom they devote their time to the learning of ways in which to improve their salesmanship and the carrying on of good business.

The course is open to seniors exclusively, and two credits are given to those passing the one year course with all the necessary requirements.

The class of Consumer Buying is open to juniors, and in some cases sophomores. The prime objectives in this course are to teach the students how to buy and choose wisely groceries, articles of clothing, and other merchandise, and how to get the most out of their money.

Certainly, with these two classes functioning in our school, our students will gain in economic knowledge and will be equipped for a wiser entrance into the economic field.

MR. LESLIE PREDDY

Physical Education

MR. LEWIS R. WHITE

MISS EMILY V. PITTMAN

MR. JOHN E. DAVIS

"Up, one, up, two" rings the cry of the exercise leader as another gym class is whipped into shape. Physical fitness is one of the prime factors in a well-rounded curriculum, and we're proud of the skill which the gym classes have developed, both in exercising and in playing sports.

In the girls' gym classes, Miss Pittman introduced field hockey early in the year, explaining the rules and fundamentals of the game. Much of the equipment was obtained from Farmville State Teachers College since the sticks were expensive and unobtainable at the time. Interest in this sport has grown to such proportions that interscholastic games may be scheduled next year.

Boys' gym classes place emphasis on football as well as physical fitness at the beginning of the year. The boys and girls share the floor during basketball season and divide the field for softball when spring sports start. Games are scheduled between the gym classes, and often independent teams play after school hours.

Since there must be a system of order in each class, there are squads and squad leaders to check on attendance. This is hardly necessary, since anyone who gets enjoyment from these classes wouldn't think of missing one!

Music

In Suffolk High school the only instruction in music is the training which the Glee Club receives under the direction of Miss Hewlett. Membership in this organization allows a pupil to receive one-half credit toward graduation. Music is not required in the curriculum of the school. Nevertheless, many students who have a reasonable amount of musical talent and like to learn new songs find that the Glee Club is the most enjoyable means of obtaining a half credit.

Several members of the Glee Club were chosen to be in the Double Quartet which is pictured above. This Quartet has sung before many clubs and civic organizations during the year.

Several years in the past operettas were presented by the Glee Club, but this has not been possible recently since we have not had a full-time music instructor up until this year.

The majority of students in high school have shown their interest in music by expressing their desire for the organization of a band. Much has been said about this, and we hope soon to have a band that will be a credit to the school.

Second Row: Goggin, Crumpler, Bradshaw, Miss Bell, Newman, Alberts, Andrews, Chapman

Third Row: Johnson, Holland, VanValkenburgh, Whitfield, Worsham, Rundio, Jaffe, Saunders

Fourth Row: Byrd, Bowles, Matthews, White

On the first floor we find the newest additions to Suffolk High School—the students who this year came to us from Thomas Jefferson School. A more enthusiastic group of boys and girls would be hard to find anywhere, for they have displayed an interest in our school activities even though membership to clubs is not open to them. They were willing and anxious to subscribe to both THE PEANUT and the Peanut Picker, and it was partly through their efforts that our school proved successful in the Red Cross Drive as well as the Tuberculosis Drive.

Third Row: B. Holland, Harrell, Smith, Zittrain, Matthews, Bradshaw, Howell, Hayes, Savage, Floyd, Neal

The two homerooms shown on these two pages combined during the year for several parties which were largely attended. These pupils were also seen at dances sponsored by clubs and organizations of our school.

Upperclassmen are proud of the way these two homerooms supported room improvement throughout the year. We have found that these newcomers are an asset to Suffolk High School.

In this, the Twenty-fifth Anniversary Edition of THE PEANUT, we wish to present, as in past years, lasting mementoes of our fellow classmates and friends. We acknowledge the hard work and achievements of organizations and individuals as these are worthy of recognition.

The first edition of THE PEANUT was published in 1917. On account of the World War I and later the building of the new high school there was not another publication until 1924. However, since then, and even during the trying years of World War II, THE PEANUT has managed to be printed.

We are, indeed, proud of our annual, for from its initial publication it has received outstanding and distinguished honors in all literary contests of Group II schools. Last year, as well as several other years, the staffs of the Annual felt well rewarded for their work when their publication was given top honor of Group II annuals of the state.

Not only does THE PEANUT bring lasting remembrances of Suffolk High School, but also it affords great opportunity for experience for its staffs. Most annual work is done by upper-classmen. However, in order to make such a project possible, every student of our school must cooperate and back the annual with his subscription.

Work on THE PEANUT began almost the day school started, with big plans for our twenty-fifth edition as to the theme, dedication, and cover. When these things had been decided upon, the various pictures were taken and the literary staff began its job of writing the articles. Finally the "dummy" was completed and your PEANUT was off to press. This sounds very simple and easy to many of us, but it really involves plenty of hard work.

In the picture on the opposite page we see our head editors and sponsors, while in the picture above we see all the members of both literary and business staffs.

We hope this publication of THE PEANUT will stand with previous ones—on top!

The most important organization in our school is the Student Senate, the governing body of the school. The Senate is made up of a president and vice-president elected by the student body; a representative elected from each homeroom; three representatives at large elected by the student body; the editors of the school paper and annual; and the presidents of the junior and senior classes.

The meetings of the Senate are held at eight-thirty on the first and third Monday mornings of each month.

This body has worked with the Ways and Means Committee this year in doing many things to improve our school. They sent three delegates to the S.C.A. convention in Richmond, sold Suffolk High School pennants and, also, sponsored a dance.

The Senate took an active interest in the resolution and plans for a high school band to be formed here next year. Another notable action of the Senate was that of passing the constitution drawn up by the Distributors' Club, thus recognizing a new club in Suffolk High School.

At the beginning of the past year, after the elections of the president of the Student Senate, the Ways and Means Committee, the executive body of the Senate, was organized with Charles Tucker as its chairman. With the advice of Mr. Savage the president of the Senate appointed the other committee chairmen.

Jack Annas was chosen chairman of the Finance Committee. The purpose of this committee is to make up a budget for all the clubs and activities of the school, showing all items paid out and all money received. Virginia Blair was made chairman of the Clubs Committee, which supervises the activities of all the clubs in our school. All social activities are planned by the Social Committee headed by Jean Edwards. Jeannette Hobbs and Melvin Kozak were appointed co-chairmen of the Athletic Committee, which draws up regulations by which monograms are presented. All assemblies for the school year are prepared by the Assembly Committee of which Jean Tomko is chairman. Billy Underwood was made chairman of the Publicity Committee which has as its purpose to publicize all school events and activities. One of the most important of these committees is the Building and Grounds Committee headed by Charlie Ward. This committee conducts regular inspections of homerooms for cleanliness.

The most important achievements of the Ways and Means Committee this year have been the adoption of resolutions and plans concerning a school band and the organization of a teen-age recreation center.

Another publication of Suffolk High School is "The Peanut Picker," our newspaper. For the first time in the history of Suffolk High this paper has been edited by a boy, Bobby Pittman.

The chief aim of the editor and his staff has been to produce a paper covering life in our school. The members of the Editorial Staff have shown their love of journalism and their interest in their work by making each issue of the "Peanut Picker" an event eagerly anticipated by the entire school. Pictured at the top of this page are those whose efforts make headlines and dead lines each time the paper comes out.

The "Peanut Picker" deserves another note of recognition through the fact that it has won nine out of twelve contests in all State Group II competition, and has always been rated "high" in the Columbia Scholastic Press Association contests.

Those pictured above are the ones who supply the material for each issue. These people are reporters, feature writers, assistant heads writers, and the business staff. Without their contribution there would be no paper.

This year, for the first time, the "Peanut Picker" has printed news from Thomas Jefferson Grammar School and the subscriptions have been increased by these interested young students.

For those students of our school interested in journalism, work on the "Peanut Picker" provides an excellent training ground in every capacity and a better understanding of those factors which make up every publication. The students are equipping themselves for work later in life as well as giving the school a publication of which it may well be proud.

The Girls' Glee Club this year has been a very successful organization, and has sung on several occasions. One of the highlights for the year in this club was the Christmas assembly for which both the Boys' and the Girls' Glee Clubs furnished the program. The numbers rendered by the Girls' Club were a Bach Chorale, "Now Let Every Tongue Adore Thee," and "Gesu Bambino" by Yon.

The Girls' Glee Club began after Christmas to make plans to compete in the Music Festival in Norfolk in March. It had special required numbers which formed the competition, and it was also required to know certain folk songs and hymns which all competing schools had to be able to sing in chorus.

Our school is proud of this club and the work that the girls and their director, Miss Hewlett, do to bring pleasure and enjoyment to the student body.

Boys' Glee Club

They like the lusty, rollicking songs of the sea, and the pep and rhythm of marching songs.

Perhaps we should say that they are at their best in performing these types, because, as you know, it is rather hard to tone down a full-throated bass or an ambitious tenor. Miss Hewlett has succeeded somewhat in this capacity by introducing such songs as "Now the Day Is Over" and "Barcarolle."

The Boys' Glee Club has performed twice this year. They combined with the girls in the Christmas assembly to give mellowness and depth to "The First Noel." Later in the year, they sang at a meeting of the A. P. T. P. and enchanted all with their nautical song, "What Shall We Do With a Drunken Sailor?"

Though they did not enter the music festival contests, they worked on the beautiful hymn "The Spacious Firmament" by Haydn. We recognize their abilities and ambitions and give a few words of encouragement: "Keep Singing!"

Without a doubt the Wranglers' Club is one of the most important in Suffolk High School. The purpose of this club is to promote debating, public speaking, and a better understanding of parliamentary law. Regardless of where we go or what we do, now or in after life, we will find that the knowledge gained from such friendly and informal instruction will aid us in understanding the viewpoints of others. The poise and self-confidence we gain is, indeed, an asset.

During the year various outside speakers attended the meetings and gave helpful advice, thus enabling the members to obtain the aid and opinions of those older and wiser than themselves.

The Wranglers' Club sponsors those pupils from Suffolk High School who enter the debating and public speaking contests in the Virginia High School Literary and Athletic League.

Besides these highly commendable activities, the Wranglers' Club sponsors the George Washington Ball each February. A few days before the dance, contestants are nominated and then polls are set up to choose the queen and maid of honor of the ball. This dance, like the more serious undertakings of this club, has become a part of the customs and traditions of Suffolk High School.

*We are the Future Homemakers of America
We face the future with warm Courage and high hope,
For we have the clear consciousness
Of seeking old and precious values.*

This begins the creed of the Future Homemakers of America. The main purpose of this club is to teach each member the basic fundamentals of good housekeeping. In addition to this, they undertake many projects such as, assisting in Red Cross work, sewing for the school and preparing banquets, teas, and receptions for many occasions.

Nineteen new members were selected for the Home Economics Club this year. Already they have undertaken many projects, and several of the girls are planning to attend the F. H. A. camp at Mogarts Beach this summer. The district meeting of the Virginia Association of the F. H. A. was held in May with our club again being the host.

Surely, the girls of today are building a strong foundation for the homes of tomorrow by displaying such enthusiasm and interest in the Home Economics Club.

One of the foremost clubs of our school is the Boys' Senior Hi-Y. It is composed of members from the junior and senior classes with a maximum of fifteen seniors and ten juniors. Each of these members is selected on the grounds of the four ideals—Clean Living, Clean Speech, Clean Athletics, and Clean Scholarship. After he is chosen, each new member must undergo an initiation which he never forgets. It is necessary for a student to pass at least three accredited subjects to remain a member in good standing.

The second Sunday of each month the club attends various church services in a body with other Hi-Y Clubs of the school. In this way, it is possible for them to learn about and experience every religion.

Every year a project of this club is to sponsor a Sadie Hawkins Dance, a co-ed affair which is carried out in true yokum fashion.

Indeed, this club has done its part to maintain its ideals, for they stand on and for the platform and purpose of Hi-Y.

The importance and significance of such an organization as the Girls' Senior Hi-Y Club in our school activities cannot be stressed too strongly. It is one of the most active clubs in the school, both in carrying out projects for the student body and in building in each one of its members the character and strong foundation she will need in later life.

This club played Santa Claus to a small boy at Christmas and decorated the school for the holiday season. It has kept the girls' rest room on the third floor neat and has sold concessions at two of the basketball games. One of its more recent projects has been the planning of the bronze memorial plaque for those who gave their lives in World War II. At its completion, it will be placed on the main floor of our school building.

The girls in this club endeavor in their every-day life to live up to the standards which their purpose and platform set. They believe that they are a model club for Christian living.

Early in the school year the Boys' Junior Hi-Y Club held its formal induction service in the Youth Chapel of the Christian Church. Talks were made on each of the four Hi-Y C's—Clean Speech, Clean Sportsmanship, Clean Scholarship, Clean Living.

This club carried out many fine projects during the year. Some of these were keeping the physical education playing field marked with lime, keeping students from playing in the gymnasium during the lunch hour, and taking up the song books after assembly. Also, this club attended the various church services in town in a body with the other Hi-Y Clubs of the school on the second Sunday of each month.

It can truly be said that the Boys' Junior Hi-Y Club has done its part to support the Hi-Y purpose—to create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character.

One of the outstanding organizations of Suffolk High School, the Girls' Junior Hi-Y Club, undertook many projects for the year. Among these were guarding devotionals in assembly and taking care of the girls' rest room on the second floor. Going to church with the combined Hi-Y Clubs on the second Sunday of each month is stressed. For its Christmas program the club gave a Christmas basket to a poor child. On Wednesday night, December 18, the members had a Christmas party in the Home Economics room.

The monthly program of the Girls' Junior Hi-Y Club is divided into four meetings: business, discussion, Bible study, and committees. Once a month some person is invited to speak before the club on a topic selected from the Bible.

From last year's treasury, a gift of three bronze plaques was presented to the Buildings and Grounds Committee this year to be used in connection with the Homeroom Improvement project.

The Girls' Junior Hi-Y was well represented at the annual Hi-Y convention in Richmond during the Thanksgiving holidays. Five members, Betty Lou Penn, Catherine Blair, Eleanor Williams, Nell Bradshaw, and Frances McBride attended.

The Suffolk High School Junior Red Cross Council, under the leadership of Ann Bell, president and Mrs. G. Warren Taylor, sponsor, has had an active year. A few of the projects for the year were publicizing fire prevention, making Christmas favors and books for Crippled Children's Hospital, taking flowers to the sick, and sponsoring the annual Junior Red Cross Drive.

Through Home Economics a course in home nursing for members of the Junior Red Cross Council was taught by Miss Elizabeth Marable in February. The topics for May were health and nutrition.

The Junior Red Cross Drive was well supported by Suffolk High School this year. Out of the four hundred and twenty-six pupils enrolled, four hundred and twenty-two joined the Junior Red Cross. A total of $36.23 was contributed.

Our high school club takes a great deal of pride in helping the Red Cross chapter in Suffolk. They know that, small as they are, they are part of the great national plan which has as its aim the welfare of all people.

On stage everybody!! Yes, the Dramatic Club is again rehearsing for a play. This time, it is comprised of only one act and will make its debut before the A. P. T. P. If it wins their praise, it will be our presentation in the state literary contest in Charlottesville.

Not only do these plays reveal talent in the persons of actors and actresses, but many others gain experience in painting scenery, make-up artistry, stage lighting, costume designing, and prompting. Everyone has a part in each production the club sponsors and in this way, each person displays his individual talent and interest.

Of course, the students in the school take part in these plays, for talent is one issue each time a play is produced, and student tryouts are important in the accurate representation of each character in the play. It is, therefore, the main job of the Dramatic Club to be the instigator and sponsor of every production which is presented in school.

Since its beginning, the Dramatic Club is proud of its record of performances which have received great praise, both from the school students and from those organizations to which they were presented. The plays sent to the State Literary Contest have won honor for Suffolk High School. We can always count on our Dramatic Club for tops in entertainment!!

This year in Suffolk High School the introduction of two new classes, namely, Consumer Buying and Retail Selling, has brought about a new club known as the Distributors' Club. This club, however, is made up of members of the Retail Selling class only.

During the regular class period each Friday, the Distributors' Club holds its meetings.

A most successful project of this club was that of securing advertisements for football programs during the season when they were needed. They have elected this as a project for next year, also.

We welcome to Suffolk High School the Distributors' Club under the sponsorship of Mr. Preddy, and we feel sure that it will work to be of benefit to those students so interested in its study. Good luck to this new club!

Cheerleaders

On the football field or on the basketball court, we like to let our team know that we're in there pitching, too. And that is where our white-clad cheerleaders take over. With a clap of their hands, they're off on another rousing yell; and the team can't help going on to win with the support we furnish under the direction of our cheerleaders.

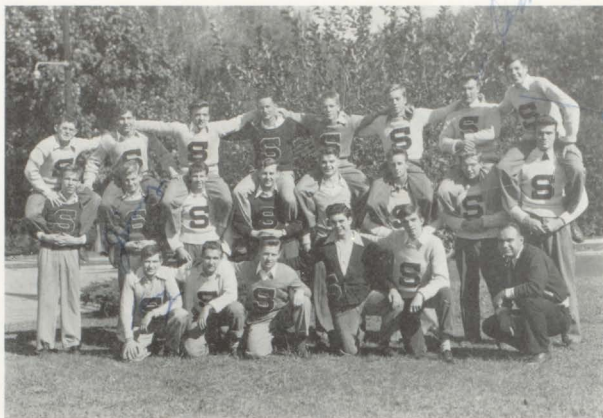

This year, two lettermen returned to the cheerleading squad boosting a count of nine. Another member often put in an appearance at football games, for little Alice White, daughter of Coach and Mrs. Dick White, cheered just as hard and enthusiastically as all the others.

It takes training, practice, and a good set of lungs to be a cheerleader. Few of us know how hard they work to maintain their excellent standard. If we did, perhaps we'd appreciate a little more those peppy yells just when the game seems hardest. Let's give credit where credit is due and yell "Nice going" to our cheerleaders! They deserve it!

Good sportsmanship and clean living are qualities which are desirable at all times. To promote and maintain these qualities is the purpose of the Monogram Club. This organization is comprised of all boys having won a large "S" in some field of athletics and having expressed a desire for membership.

Each year the Monogram Club sponsors a dance, an affair which is eagerly awaited by all of the students. Another project of this club was to stimulate enthusiasm for spring sports and to secure the support of the entire student body. With such a group ready to lend their aid to all suggestions for every sport, we are certain to have in Suffolk High School a well-rounded athletic curriculum adaptable to each boy's needs.

Our boys have found that clean playing applies not only to the football field or basketball court, but to everything they do. "Good sport" as well as "good sportsman" applies to every member.

OUTSTANDING SENIORS

ANN TRUITT

CHARLES TUCKER

CLYDE GREEN

Our President of the Student Senate is really a busy man! In addition to this important position he works with the Ways and Means Committee. Where he finds the time for being a Hi-Y member and Monogram Club member besides playing a fine brand of football, we don't know. Clyde is a hard-working member of the Senior Class and we think he deserves the honor of being an Outstanding Senior.

ANN TRUITT

When you think of THE PEANUT, you automatically think of Ann Truitt. Being co-editor is a hard job, but she has proved her ability. Ann is also a prominent member in the Double Quartet, Hi-Y, and Playmakers, and president of the Glee Club. In all of these she has shown great interest, and in recognition of this and her many activities which are improved by her cheerful participation, her classmates have chosen Ann as an Outstanding Senior.

CHARLES TUCKER

Charles Tucker, as chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, has done a hard job in an excellent manner. His interest in sports led him to the positions of cheerleader and sports editor of the Peanut Picker. As if this weren't enough, Charles is vice-president of the A.P.T.P., an office holding member of the Hi-Y, and one of the Monogram Club. All this made it imperative that he be chosen as outstanding among the Senior Class, and so we proudly display his picture in this "Hall of Fame."

JEAN SHALLCROSS

Jean Shallcross rates the title of "busiest girl in Suffolk High School." Her work on THE PEANUT as co-editor, and on the Peanut Picker as feature editor shows her never failing enthusiasm. Jean is also a member of the Hi-Y Club and Glee Club and is the manager of the Girls' Basketball Team. It was in viewing all these activities well done that make her classmates elect her as an Outstanding Senior.

BOBBY PITTMAN

This senior is a record-breaker, since he is the first boy ever to edit the Peanut Picker. He has spent much time and effort on this publication and is also active in the Wranglers' and Playmakers Clubs. Bobby is interested in athletics, too; he led an intramural team in basketball and is one of our most enthusiastic cheerleaders. The class of '47 in voting him an Outstanding Senior showed that they were conscious of his ability and natural leadership.

EADS URBACH

Everyone's friend is Eads Urbach. She has a pleasant smile and helpful attitude. Eads as business manager of the Peanut Picker, and president of the Girl's Senior Hi-Y is an excellent leader, and in the Wranglers' Club, Playmakers Club, and on THE PEANUT staff is a co-operating worker. In appreciation of her hard work and unceasing effort she has been elected one of 1947's Outstanding Seniors.

"WILLIAM"

One of the familiar figures around our high school is William Riddick, our janitor. Our school could not be the beautiful, well-cared-for place it is without his constant attention. When the present high school building was finished in 1922, William came here as janitor and has rounded out twenty-five years of faithful service. Before that, he served the Thomas Jefferson school for four years; and, prior to that, William was janitor at the John Randolph School from 1912 to 1918.

We all regard William in highest esteem, and it is our wish that he will be around for many years to come. We take great pride in dedicating this page to one who has been so faithful in service.

COACHES DAVIS AND WHITE

FOOTBALL

In the past year, 1946, Suffolk High School has had one of the most successful football seasons of its history. The coaching staff, made up of Coaches Dick White and John Davis, turned out a light but fast team. One of the deciding features in our team's success, in addition to the strength of its line and the fast thinking of its backfield, was its ability to work together, to perform as a team.

The season was started successfully with Portlock as our opponent on our home field. This was the first time the Red Raiders had ever played Portlock, and the final score was Suffolk 25, Portlock 7. However, the following week we played a Group I school, Maury, our team ending up on the short end of a 37 to 0 score. This, of course, didn't dampen our spirits, and we played a very close 2 to 0 game against Norview the following week, with our team winning. The Raiders had an easy time against Alexander Park, winning 19 to 0. The next game, however, was very close the score being 8 to 7, with the Raiders winning over South Norfolk. Following this game, the Red Raiders shut out Broad Creek 39 to 0 and Churchland 14 to 0. The game with Cradock ended up with the Raiders winning 19 to 6. Another easy game followed with Oceana, the score being 27 to 0. It seemed our winning streak ended here, for when our Red Raiders journeyed to Morrison, they were beaten 12 to 6. However, our school (Continued on Page 80)

CHARLIE WARD

While some call him "Pimp,"
The opposition thinks him no skimp.

CLAUD ELEY

Claud is that end so big and tall—
When he hits them, they really fall.

CALVIN SCHADEL

This year he tried many posts
But at tackle he can really boast.

JACK ANNAS

Center and line backer, too.
He's always too tough for you.

BOB CHURN

A tricky fullback; we all know
That Bob will score the winning blow.

RALEIGH ELLIS

A great guard who will always stick—still won the District Group II championship, and a post-season game with Harrisonburg was scheduled. The game was called the Peanut Bowl under the sponsorship of the Suffolk Rotary Club. At the final whistle, the score was Harrisonburg 13, Suffolk 6.

Much credit for the success of this champion team is due Jack Stroud who was manager for the season and also his able assistants, Beverly Carter and Earl Johnson.

It is needless to say what a tremendous success the 1946 football season was!

Beside our winning the championship once again, all the students really got a thrill out of attending almost every game played. This in itself shows the school spirit always present in Suffolk High School. Let's hope next year's season is as successful as this one has been!

BASKETBALL

This year's boys' basketball team has, on the whole, been very successful. At the beginning of the season, they were a little "off," but as the season progressed, they began getting better and still better, and finally wound up in the finals in the District Group II tournament.

The first game of the season was played with Wilson, a Group I school. We, of course, were out of our class, the score being Wilson 57, Suffolk 15. The next contest was also with a Group I school, Norview. The score of this game was Norview 39, Suffolk 24. We won the next encounter with Oceana with a score of 28 to 23. However, we were not quite so lucky in the following game played at South Norfolk by a score of 30 to 25. Then we were downed by Norview 30 to 27, and then by Cradock 43 to 33. It seemed that at the beginning of the season we just couldn't click, for once again we lost a close game, this time with Morrison by a score of 18 to 14. But then we came roaring back, to stop Kempsville 31 to 14, also Morrison by a score of 24 to 19. Next Windsor and Oceana were thrown by the wayside, 44-22, 38-20 respectively. However, South Norfolk snapped our streak by beating us by a score of 38 to 22, but we came back strong in the next game, overcoming Cradock by an astounding score of 50 to 28. Also we capsized the first game, we conquered South Norfolk by a surprising score of 37 to 24. Cradock beat Morrison 60 to 19. The championship match was between Suffolk and Cradock, the Raiders losing by a score of 50 to 34. Though Cradock won the championship, the main thing was the Red Raiders fought with clean sportsmanship shown throughout the tournament as well as the entire season.

Thus with the able coaching of Coach Dick White and the capable managing of Jack Stroud, assisted by Jimmy Barnes, the Raiders finished a season of which they can well be proud. The total number of points made during the season was 643 to their opponents' 548. High scorer for Suffolk was Claud Eley with 176 points made, followed by Jack Annas with 101 points.

Kempville by a score of 42 to 21, Churchland 41 to 24, and Alexander Park 38 to 33. We met Alexander Park the next week, and once again beat them, this time by a score of 42 to 31. A non-conference game with Franklin was on the menu where the Raiders came through 36 to 14 to top off a "swell" season.

The final playoff for the district Group II championship was held in the Wilson gym.

Those entering were Suffolk, South Norfolk, Cradock, and Morrison. In

BASKETBALL

The Suffolk High School girls' basketball team proved again this year their outstanding abilities by winning 13 of the 17 games played. The Raiders scored a total of 654 points as compared to 438 for their opponents.

Our girls opened the season by trouncing Norview 41 to 34. In their second game Oceana proved no match for them and they went down in defeat 25-17. The girls then hit the road and had their taste of defeat at South Norfolk where they were overcome 35-29. The lassies next came through with two thrashing victories—a 57-39 triumph over Norview and a 35-14 win over Cradock. Hard luck came again and the girls lost a narrow 39-27 decision to Morrison. They, however, warmed up and handed Kempsville a 47-22 beating followed by a brilliant siege of revenge on the Morrison Farmerettes, 34-19.

The second team then took on a strong Windsor sextet and defeated them 25-20. The varsity swung back into action with a 33-18 win over Oceana. South Norfolk again edged out the girls in a hard fought home contest, 34-31. They went on a four game winning streak by whipping Cradock, 50-30, Kempsville 44-22, Churchland, 54-26, and Alexander Park 32-29. The home team then journeyed to Alexander Park for a return contest and failed to sink enough points to overcome their game opponents, 23-22. The Suffolk girls tapered off their brilliant season with an easy 58-17 victory over an inexperienced Franklin six.

BASKETBALL

BRADSHAW IN SPOTLIGHT AGAINST CHURCHLAND

Jeannette Hobbs along with Judy Smith, Lilly Mae Dillard, and Nell Bradshaw took care of the remaining points. Sparkling at the guard positions were Jean Edwards, Sarah Carr, and Helen Davies. Florence Bowden and Barbara Hassen saw action as relief guards.

Again in 1946 and 1947 the Suffolk High girls' basketball team proved to be one of the outstanding teams in Tidewater Virginia.

FRESHMAN ROUNTREE ADDS TWO MORE TO HER RECORD-BREAKING TOTAL

Miss Emily Pittman handled the reigns of the team for the twelfth consecutive year and as usual added many honors to her past reputation as one of the outstanding coaches of the state. The team this year was capably managed by Jean Shallcross, assisted by Sarah Crocker.

Freshman Virginia Mae Rountree, a newcomer to the squad, took scoring honors with a total of 344 points for the season. Second high scorer was Virginia Blair with 133 points.

Dearest Marj,

It has deeply been a pleasure and happiness just to know a little girl who is a nice & sweet as you are. I am not joking when I say that, if you don't believe me just ask Henry or Spider. Hope you have as much fun in the rest of your high school <sup>COMPLIMENTS</sup> career and College <sup>OF</sup> also. You are a girl who deserves the very best of everything in life and any-thing that comes before you. You are one of the nicest girls I have ever had the <sup>SINCLAIR</sup> pleasure of meeting, it has given me a great <sup>POND BROS.</sup> pleasure in knowing you. You should have went to the circus this evening, but not I see you just didn't want to go or were you suppose to play <sup>W. P. GREEN, AGENT</sup> tennis with "Spider". We will still have to go to the Beach or Planters pool one day or night, understand! I am sorry if I am not back <sup>Victor, Columbia, Decca, Capitol</sup> next year, but if I finish in summer school it will be the best for me. I will then settle down. <sup>RECORDS</sup> Martha don't even forget Nags <sup>PHILCO RADIOS</sup> and <sup>AND</sup> Head and the other things we have had together, not many but few. I don't mind carrying you home these evenings when I have nothing else to do, I enjoy it. Well I guess you will settle down when <sup>ELECTRICAL</sup> Link comes home. Well Martha I guess I will have to stop or you might get the wrong impression, but <sup>APPLIANCES, INC.</sup> believe me every word that is on this page even if your hair is not red, just stay as you are and life will be a success to you. "Remember my Car." it will carry me where I go. P.S. Take care of everything at <sup>35 North Main Street</sup> As ever, "Willie"

DEAR <sup>Love</sup> Will next year you will be a soph.
or a grown lady. We are going to Nags Head (Adopt) this summer. I hope you will make up your mind who you like. (I had better be mad). You are a mighty sweet girl with plenty of looks.
I hope you have some rich million airc. Will select 12 of us I must close see you this summer so I won't say good bye. Look you always

HOW MUCH DOES A DIAMOND RING COST AT BREWER JEWELRY COMPANY?

We cannot give you a definite figure
... but there's a definite answer

THE answer is simply: Never more than it is worth ... and usually somewhat less. Whatever you decide to invest, we have a fine selection to show you in a variety of newest styles. But one thing is definitely assured. The price tag we place upon a diamond ring is always based upon careful examination and expert judgment with the thought in mind that our policy of giving the utmost in value comes first, above all else. Our satisfied customers are our best evidence of the wisdom of such a policy.

Marta,
you'll never guess
why I'm writing here!
However, I don't think
mine will look like this one. I don't know now, but keep one day open. I want

Keepsake-LAWRENCE
Engagement Ring 500.00

you to be a bridesmaid someday. Well, it won't be too long. It's really been wonderful this year Marta.

Just hope we can have as much fun

Brewer's
SUFFOLK, VA.

Next year. Love to a gal,

Chloe, Jessie, Belaria, Tassie.

Martha —

I just don't know what to do with you — you always have so many "boys" on the string you just don't give me a chance.
We really have had some grand times together though —
Be good to S. —
"Pick and choose" — the best refuse — love,
Bobby P.

CONGRATULATIONS

TO THE SENIOR CLASS OF 1947

Martha,
Since this year has come to an end a glorious end it is. We must quit dancing for awhile but we shall resume it next year. I have certainly enjoyed knowing you and have had many fine times. Until next year you must hold them up by your self. If no other way by a sign, smaller.

Sometimes it is the nature of a craft to create an unbreakable tie between itself and the worker in that field, a heart attachment equal to lifetime devotion. One familiar example is PRINTING. Once editor, once compositor, or pressman catches the spirit of the shop, the spell is seldom broken. Like the odor of a camp fire, or a whiff of salt air, the beloved tang of printer's ink, symbolical of a great profession, gets into your heart and soul. School Annuals, Magazines, Newspapers and Special Printing, all smack of it. It is an invisible link that binds all intelligence together. It is the stimulus for creation in business or romance. This craftsmanship, this devotion to service and alertness to business needs, has nourished and developed enormous industrial vitality and whichever way the course of the future runs, the printer will always find himself able to adapt his helpfulness to new opportunity.

YEARS OF EXPERIENCE HAVE TAUGHT US! PRINTING PAYS US ONLY WHEN IT PAYS YOU!

Dear Martha,

But of look to a swell, sweet,

Cute, nice girl. I really enjoy knowing somebody like you. I hope you have a swell time this summer.
Take care of Henry cause he really is a swell guy.
I'll see you around this summer and next year.
